

BRITISH ARMY WITHIN 15 MILES OF CATANIA

The War
Today...By DeWitt MacKenzie
AP War Analyst

THE Roosevelt-Churchill ultimatum to the people of Italy is an astute logical development, delivered with what appears to be time timing.

The Italian public as a whole never has had its heart in this war. The country was swept into the conflict by Mussolini's sudden treachery against France and, once caught in the mill-race, couldn't get out.

As I previously have reported in this column, back as far as the Munich conference, when the power-mad but pusillanimous Duce was beginning to sniff the Hitlerian heels, I found in Italy a widespread feeling of abhorrence for the Nazi leader and his works. The average Italian had no use for Hitler, and decidedly had no intention of going to war to support him.

Even then there was a great unreluctant of the repression of the dictatorship. The people lived in constant fear—so much so that they were afraid to speak their minds openly, and so suffered in silence.

Their trouble was that they had no champion to lead them in revolt against Mussolini. The King at that time had lost his hold on the respect of many of his people, and was regarded more or less as a figurehead and helpless in the hands of the Duce.

Since then, however, there has been a change in Italy. The royal house seems to have made a recovery in the esteem of the public, and the old king has been asserting himself.

COINCIDENTALLY, we have seen the curious spectacle of Italian staff officers coolly surrendering en bloc in Sicily, and their soldiers happily following suit. Obviously many of the Roman troops had no intention of resisting the invasion but, on the contrary, welcomed it. That's not because they are unwilling to fight for their country, but because it's clear to them that they aren't battling for the fatherland but are merely providing cannon fodder for Hitler.

Back at the time of Tunisia, Italian prisoners were bitter in their denunciation of the Boche. And it may be said that the Germans thoroughly despise their allies.

So it is into such an atmosphere that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill have pitched their ultimatum. There's no mincing of words in warning that "the sole hope for Italy's survival lies in honorable capitulation," but it holds out the fair promise of "restoration of national dignity, security and peace" to the Italians.

OF COURSE, the pressure from Hitler is very great, and he has many troops and secret police in Italy to maintain his power. That is calculated to have a restraining

YANKS OUTWIT
JAPS, CAPTURE
MUBO GATEWAYBeat Enemy at Own Jungle
Tactics; 45 Japanese
Planes Downed

(By Associated Press)

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN THE SOUTHWEST PACIFIC, July 16.—Outwitting the wily Japanese at his own jungle game of stealing up from behind, American and Australian fighters of Gen. Douglas MacArthur possessed the Mubo gateway to Salamaua today after wiping out 950 surprised defenders in a brilliant New Guinea maneuver.

The abrupt collapse of hill positions bestride which the Japanese for months barred the way along the jungle track leading to their Salamaua air base, 12 miles to the north, was announced in a communique which also recorded a spectacular air victory.

Over Rendova island in the Central Solomons, 45 Japanese planes were shot down out of a formation of approximately 80 while on nearby New Georgia American jungle fighters edged still closer to the enemy's key air base of Munda.

The self-same tactics the Japanese employed with such bewildering success against the British on their advance upon the Malay peninsula upon Singapore—infiltration to the rear—proved their undoing at Mubo.

Brave Treacherous Reefs
On June 30, while the right prong of the present Pacific offensive got under way against Munda, the left prong was established by American forces who braved the treacherous reefs to land at Nassau bay on northeast New Guinea, 12 miles down the coast from Salamaua.

A highly secretive operation began at that point. Stealthily these forces, some lugging heavy guns by hand over jungle paths, moved inland along the valley of the Bitol river toward Mubo's rear.

After Americans and Australians conquered southeastern New Guinea in mid-January by destroying a Japanese army of 15,000, Australians had moved through the jungle north more than 150 miles toward Salamaua. But they found the Japanese entrenched on observation hill, Green Hill, the Pimple and other Mubo strongpoints. From spring until the current offensive, it was a stalemate.

Today's communique from General MacArthur disclosed that the Americans who moved inland from Nassau bay joined the Australians

RESIGNS POSITION
ON HEALTH BOARDDr. James M. McGeorge,
Member 19 Years, Succeeded by Dr. Derfus

The resignation of Dr. James M. McGeorge as a member of the city board of health was announced today by Mayor R. R. Johnson, head of the board. He will be succeeded by Dr. L. F. Derfus. Dr. McGeorge has been in ill health for some time.

A leading surgeon he has served as a member of the board continuously for 19 years since his appointment at the time of the death of Dr. F. T. Miles in May, 1924. Dr. McGeorge's term expires Dec. 31.

Chief of the staff of Salem City hospital for a number of years Dr. McGeorge is a member of the American College of Surgeons. He received his medical training at Ohio Wesleyan university and the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Cleveland, now a part of Western Reserve university.

He served in the U. S. Army Medical corps as first lieutenant during World War I and saw action in France. He has practiced here for more than 30 years.

Dr. Derfus, present chief of the city hospital staff, also saw action in France during World War I with the Medical corps.

Other members of the board are: Dr. R. T. Holzbach, health commissioner, Dr. Donald Lease, Harry Denour, E. M. Stephenson and R. K. Yates.

TOLEDO TRUCK
DRIVER KILLEDArthur L. Ruhl, 53, Victim of Rte. 344 Mishap Near Leetonia Thursday

Arthur L. Ruhl, 53, a Toledo truck driver, was fatally injured when his truck left the road on State Route 344, about two miles east of Leetonia, at 11 p. m. yesterday, and turned over several times.

The driver, who lost control of the vehicle on a curve, state highway patrolmen said, suffered severe scalp lacerations and internal injuries. He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Salem City hospital.

Ruhl, whose address is given as the Court hotel, Toledo, was driving only the tractor part of the truck at the time. He was traveling east. The vehicle, which was completely demolished, was owned by the Sente Trucking Co. of Toledo.

Coroner Arnold Devon today ruled accidental death from injuries received in automobile accident as the cause of death.

Boys Tumble Into River, One Drowns

EAST LIVERPOOL, July 16.—The death of William Wilson, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson in the Ohio river yesterday was the first death by drowning recorded this season in East Liverpool.

The boy and a companion were playing on a rocky ledge on the river bank, near the old Harker pottery, when they slipped and fell into the water. His companion was able to reach shore and summon help.

Firemen, who recovered the Wilson boy's body 45 minutes later in 11 feet of water, used the rescuator for an hour but failed to revive the victim.

ALLIANCE, July 16.—Mrs. Hester Witherspoon, superintendent of nurses at the Alliance City hospital the last three years, has received a summons to report for training with the Army Nursing corps Sept. 8. She also served seven years as supervisor at the hospital, from which she graduated in 1930.

BY TOM REEDY

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Sharply denouncing the row between Vice President Wallace and Commerce Secretary Jesse Jones, President Roosevelt stripped both of broad powers and served notice today that anyone else in his official family who feuds in public will be fired.

For almost three weeks, Mr. Roosevelt watched—as he said with surprise—Wallace and Jones slam each other in print over methods of stockpiling strategic war materials.

Last night, in about the same vein that he pronounced "a plague on both your houses" when rival labor unions were warring a few years ago, the President cracked down. In a sweeping order, he:

1—Abolished the Board of Economic Warfare (BEW), of which Wallace was the policy-making head.

2—Took away from Jones' Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC), four major agencies dealing with foreign purchasing.

3—Established a new Office of Economic Warfare (OEI) with Leo T. Crowley, 53-year-old Allen property custodian, as the director.

4—Told all administrative officials that any time they disagree with another agency and "feel you should submit it to the press, I ask that when you release the statement for publication, you send to me a letter of resignation." Minor officeholders who violate this are to be dismissed by their seniors, promptly, the President added.

Won't Decide Issue
Mr. Roosevelt emphasized he was not deciding who was right in the battle which flared into the open June 28 and grew hotter and hotter by the day.

The President, in letters to Wallace and Jones, said there wasn't time in the midst of war to find out "where the truth lies" in such matters. The important thing, he wrote, was to "clear the decks and to get on with the war at once.... A fresh start with new men, unencumbered by interagency dissension and bitterness."

Both principals accepted the President's rebuke without argument. Wallace commented: "In wartime, no one should question the overall wisdom of the commander-in-chief."

Said Jones: "I concur most heartily in the

Cabby, Former
Pottery Head,
Quit WPB Job

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 16.—If you are going to ride cabs in Washington, watch your tipping, especially if your driver is a middle-aged sort of cabbie with something of the executive in his men. That could be William L. Smith, 57, who probably could buy and sell most of his riders.

Smith, formerly president of pottery firms in Ohio and West Virginia, quit a $4,800 a year job as a priority expert in the War Production board and turned cabbie out of what he calls "disgust over government red tape." Now he earns $10 to $12 a day.

Higher-Ups Irked Him
"I felt I was doing no good in WPB," Smith told a reporter. "I feel that I'm actually doing more toward the war effort now than when I was a government specialist being overruled constantly by higher-ups who didn't know anything."

Smith says he was attending to his own ceramics and pottery selling business back in East Liverpool, Ohio, when a Washington official brought him to the capital. Previously he had been president of a pottery manufacturing firm in Chester, W. Va.

"But there was too much buck-passing and not getting anything done," he declared. "I was an industrial specialist and I'd give a ruling on a priority for a manufacturer, but my ruling would be thrown overboard by someone who didn't know anything about it. Others who had decisions to make just wouldn't make them."

"Well, I had to do something," Smith continued. "I'm the sort who has to keep busy. My doctor had been talking to me a lot about getting outside work, so this is it."

Smith scoffs at some of his friends' description of him as a millionaire out having fun.

"Even in my palmy days, I was far from being a millionaire," he laughed, "but I can say that I'm not in need."

He said he was still a large stockholder in the manufacturing firm whose presidency he resigned in 1937.

FATHERS SAFE
UNTIL OCTOBERMost of Them Still Will Be
In "Civies," Draft Official
Declares

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Most of the nation's fathers will still be in civilian clothes by October, perhaps much longer, say draft officials who are counting on single and childless married men, and the "teen age group" to meet the armed forces' requirements.

This continued immunity from Selective Service applies however only to those fathers living with and supporting children born before last Sept. 15 and working at jobs outside the non-deferrable list. About 6,500,000 have those qualifications.

This was the draft picture given reporters by Major Emmett Solomon of Selective Service's manpower division yesterday.

The 1,566,000 single and childless married men already classified as available for immediate induction will fill the quotas for July, August and September, although some will win reclassification on appeal and about 40 per cent will be rejected and put into Class 4-F.

Supplementing this were these factors:

1. At least 50,000 youths who become 18 each month can be counted upon with certainty to land in uniform. An even greater number of the total of 90,000 reaching that age monthly may prove inductible.

2. An indefinite number will be "recovered" from the pool of 2,970,000 men rejected before because of physical, mental, educational or moral disqualifications.

3. Many of the 705,000 single and childless married men now holding occupational deferment for farm work are likely to be called by local boards at the harvest season ends.

4. Occupational deferments for non-agricultural work expire constantly and most of this group of 1,375,000 are single or childless married men.

On the other hand, it was said, only unexpected developments can continue immunity for fathers throughout a prolonged war.

The armed forces already have a strength of 9,300,000 men and women and, though casualties thus far have been considerably below the allowance made for them in military plans, the officially projected size of the armed forces is 10,000,000 by the end of this year and 11,300,000 by the middle of next year, largely as the result of naval expansion.

Highway Director Hal Sours said after that date state highway patrolmen, police departments or sheriffs' offices would issue permits for applicants to operate vehicles with only a single tag in the rear for a seven-day period, permitting removal of tags one at a time for recodification.

Plates must be repainted with green letters and numerals on a white background, Sours added.

By Roosevelt and Churchill

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, July 16.—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill today gave Italy her choice—to surrender honorably, or be blasted out of the war.

In a virtual ultimatum, the Allied leaders said the time had come for the Italian people "to decide whether Italians shall die for Mussolini and Hitler—or live for Italy and civilization."

The statement added: "The skies over Italy are dominated by the vast air armadas of the United States and Great Britain," and "Italy's sea coasts are threatened by the greatest accumulation of British and Allied sea power ever concentrated in the Mediterranean."

In a joint statement issued simultaneously at the White House and in London (at 7 a. m. Eastern War Time) the two United Nations leaders told the people of Italy that the sole hope of Italy's survival "lies in honorable capitulation to the overwhelming power of the military forces of the United Nations."

"If you continue to tolerate the Fascist regime which serves the evil power of the Nazis, you must suffer the consequences of your own choice," the statement said.

With Allied forces sweeping across Sicily toward the Italian mainland, the President and British prime minister in their message broadcast to Italy from Algiers and other adjacent Allied points, said they could take no satisfaction in invading Italian soil and bringing the tragic devastation of war home to the Italian people.

They added that they were determined, however, to "destroy the false leaders and their doctrines which have brought Italy to her present position."

Drop Propaganda Leaflets
The release of the joint statement, which followed several informal invitations in recent months that Italy get out of the war, was the signal for a propaganda drive which included the dropping of thousands of leaflets on Italy by Allied bombers in addition to beaming the message to the people of Italy by radio.

Asserting that Germany's hopes for world conquest "have been blasted on all fronts," the joint statement declared the skies over Italy are dominated by vast Allied air armadas and Italy's coasts are "threatened by the greatest accumulation of British and Allied sea power ever concentrated in the Mediterranean."

"Every moment that you resist be combined forces of the United Nations—every drop of blood that you sacrifice—can serve only one purpose: to give the Fascist and Nazi leaders a little more time to escape from the inevitable consequences of their own crimes."

The 600-word message continued: "The time has now come for you, the Italian people, to consult your own self respect and your own interests and your own desire for a restoration of national dignity, security and peace. The time has come for you to decide whether Italians shall die for Mussolini and Hitler—or live for Italy and for civilization."

CRACK GERMAN
UNITS MAULLED
IN SICILY ROUTAllies Announce Capture of 12 More Towns; Prisoner
Toll 20,000

By DANIEL DELUCE

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, July 16.—The hard-punching British Eighth army was reported within 15 miles of Catania in a northward surge up the Sicilian coast today after falling upon two German armored divisions and severely mauling them.

Allied headquarters announced the capture of 12 more towns, as Americans, British and Canadians advanced all along their moon-shaped front and more than 20,000 prisoners were in Allied hands when Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's veterans administered another licking to the Hermann Goering and 15th German armored divisions.

The American Seventh army of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., seizing a number of towns on the western sector, some of them of the greatest strategic importance, had taken nearly 16,000 of the prisoners.

Counter-Attacks Fail
This time Montgomery fell upon the Germans north of Lentini, where the Axis had gathered important armor for a strong counter-attack, and smashed them back.

Observers believed the enemy had staked his all on counter-attack. With an "appreciable number of tanks" already in Sicily, observers were confident the German tank forces would be dealt with, and that thereafter the enemy would be obliged to fight a defensive rear-guard action while conducting a withdrawal from the island.

The Axis appeared powerless to keep the Allied fleet in check as it gave strong seaward support to Montgomery's right flank and bombarded the enemy's coastal positions at will.

Another hot struggle also was reported inland about 25 miles from the east coast at Vizzini, one of the newly captured towns.

With the immediate prize of Catania, half way up the east coast, near at hand, the veterans of Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery were said by today's communique from Allied headquarters to have "made further progress against German troops who desperately contested every inch of the ground."

Severe Losses Reported
(The Rome radio, in a broadcast recorded in London, said "the real and true decision for the island will be reached in a new battle which has already virtually started in the Catania plain.")

"Severe losses were inflicted upon the enemy" by the American Seventh army of Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., which "advanced several miles across open hill country, and captured further important positions," the communique added.

Although the headquarters bulletin said the "speed of the advance is very satisfactory," it called attention to the limiting factor of Allied transport and supporting

GOOD NEWS COMES FASTER

The geometric progression of good news hits another high spot with the formal transfer of Guadeloupe and Martinique to the United Nations. Appropriately, the break with captive France was announced on the eve of Bastille day, traditional holiday of French freedom.

The closing of the islands to further threats of hostile influence is the chief result of the transfer of authority from pro-Vichy Admiral Georges Robert to pro-Allied Henri Etienne Hoppenot. Next in importance is the accession of four French warships and 11 merchantmen and tankers to the Allied battle and cargo fleets at a time when the Axis is losing the battle of supply.

Of almost equal importance is the psychology advantage of knowing that the geometric progression of good news is being maintained; that the transformation from the despair of a year ago is no accident, but the result of sound growth and understanding cooperation. In reverse, the speed with which the Allies crumbled when they were caught unprepared in 1940 is being duplicated.

They are winning back lost ground and prestige, not in the arithmetic progression of 2-4-8-16-32, but in the geometrical progression of 2-4-16-256-65,536. "Everything they touch is successful, just as everything the Germans touched was successful when they held the advantage. Final solution of the long-standing problem of the two strategic French islands in hostile hands at the Caribbean approach to this country, while not of major importance in itself, is part of a succession of good news that must be as bad for German morale as it is good for ours.

MECHANIZED WAR IN SICILY

The nature of combat in Sicily is bringing into play the mechanized weapons which Americans believe are destined to be their forte in World War II.

The invasion, the aerial bombardment which preceded it, the offensive launched from the beachheads, the artillery clearing the way, and the logistics of the whole operation will bring into coordinated play for the first time the entire resources of an American force completely equipped for the mechanized warfare which Germany brought to perfection in its blitzkriegs three years ago. Our fighting men have used parachutes, gliders, armored cars, tanks, mobile artillery—everything that Germany used in its bid for supremacy. Most of them never had seen the equipment or heard of the technique of its employment until they were taken out of civilian life and trained for combat within the last two years. They learned much in Tunisia, but they are still learning as they fight in Sicily.

They are opposing troops, both Italian and German, trained intensively for years in a kind of warfare Americans have had to learn in months. As in Tunisia, mistakes must be expected, but as in Tunisia, the mistakes will be turned to profitable account. With their allies, the British, who also have had to learn the hard way, they intend to establish beyond any doubt the reputation of being the world's best fighters in a contest whose terms were set by their vanquished enemies. The prestige to be gained is comparable in importance with control of the area in dispute. Victory in Sicily will shatter the myth that free men cannot hope to equal the fighting forces of regimented countries.

WEARING APPAREL SUSPENSE BROKEN

The war production board announcement of a positive program for breaking suspense in the manufacture, distribution and purchase of wearing apparel, if backed up by positive action, can avert rationing of clothing.

Board Chairman Nelson says flatly that rationing is unnecessary. There is clothing enough to go around, if production in some lines is increased, if the public will use ordinary good judgment in its purchases, if the textile industry will cooperate with the war production board program. Mr. Nelson properly stresses the factor of consumer education; the program cannot succeed without a certain amount of self-denial and self-discipline. The aim is not to make conditions more difficult for anyone, but to make conditions easier.

It is an experiment—an experiment that failed when it was tried in other fields. Nevertheless, the omen for success in the handling of wearing apparel is good, due to the greater latitude that exists in the consumer field. The purchase of clothing is governed as often as not by the exercise of optional choice; the theory of the war production board program is that there will be plenty for all if purchases are made according to need, eliminating panic-buying as a major factor. The board's announcement is intended to do exactly that thing by eliminating the uncertainty which has stimulated panic-buying.

THREE CHEERS FOR THE GREEK NAVY

The report that it was a Greek destroyer which steamed into the harbor of Augusta and captured that battered city after a furious bombardment from the Allied fleet is peculiarly satisfying, especially for the Greeks.

The Greek navy didn't cut much of a figure when Il Duce was playing a cut-rate Caesar on the expense of the Italian peninsula. In comparison with the Italian navy, it wasn't even worth considering—just a handful of over-age ships of questionable value. Yet, relative to its size and handicaps, the Greek navy did a lot of damage then and is still dishing it out to the Italian "Aryans" where they can't take it. The other Allies had better keep close watch, or some morning they may learn that the Greek navy has captured Naples.

If the dogcatchers also caught rabbits the Victory doggers would be pleased.

THE STARS SAY:

For Saturday, July 17.

ALTHOUGH this should be a very active and exciting day, with much stirring in all directions, yet it may be difficult to turn the course of events into pleasant or profitable channels. There are signs of difficult and treacherous circumstances at the source of all endeavors. A shrewd and logical insight into such menacing affairs may be effective in turning the tide. Well-organized strategies are recommended, but be alert to all sorts of duplicities, traps, sign papers cautiously and act and make decisions on principle, not expediency. A similar adverse and inharmonious condition may threaten private affairs, unless shrewdly and diplomatically manipulated.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are beset by danger of peculiar, menacing or disruptive forces, although there may be great activity and exciting tempo. There may be sudden, strange and unpredictable situations, to be most successfully managed by shrewd, cautious and particularly clever strategies. But direct and straightforward tactics are to be employed, lest there be grave penalties and unhappy reactions for questionable methods or connivance. Be careful with all writings and agents.

A child born on this day may have much talent and ability, of a deep and discerning quality, but its proclivity to attain its end the easiest and dubious way may prove its self-undoing.

Italian war prisoners are helping shock wheat in the United States, doubtless realizing that it may be converted into spaghetti and macaroni.

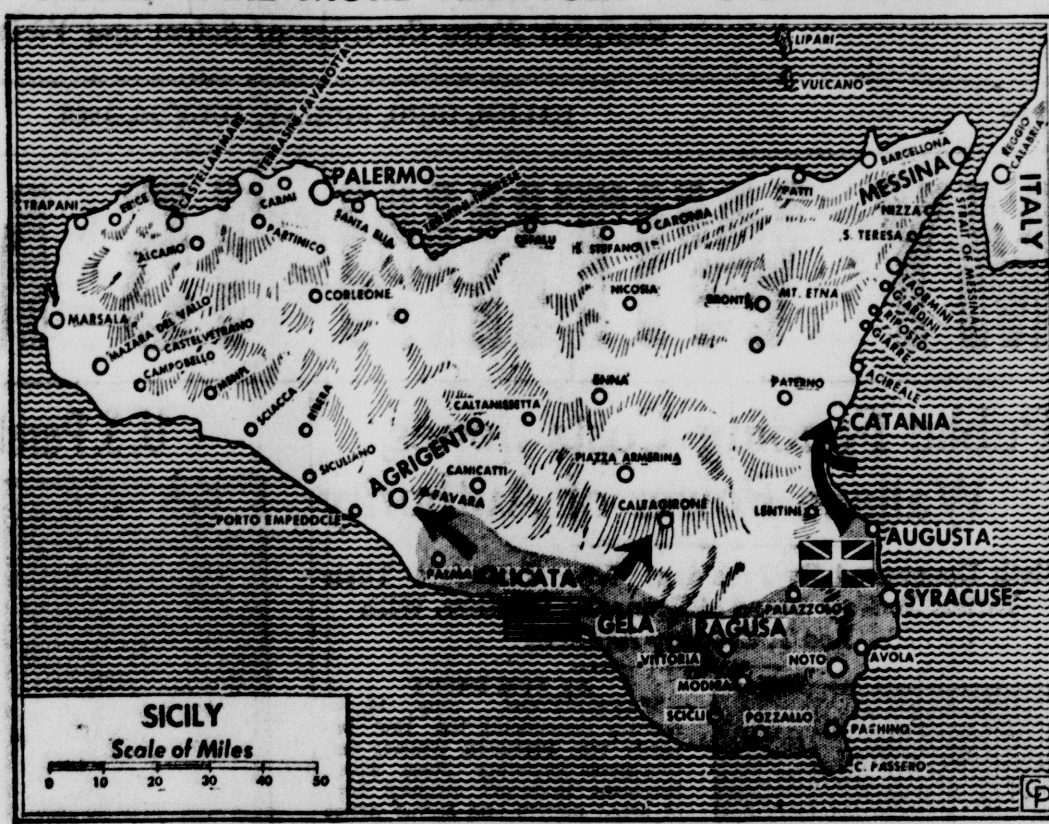

We often wonder if First Class Private Peter Plink ever reveals any military secrets in writing to Mom daily.

Few things are less interesting than pictures of movie actresses posing in a Victory garden, where they don't know Swiss chard from lima beans.

The headlines say: "War Used as Excuse for Worst Administration Muddle That the Country Has Ever known." And yet he wants to run again.

According to the news dispatches, Mussolini wired his soldiers in Sicily: "I am with you in spirit." Meaning, no doubt, not a ghost of a chance.

ALLIES TAKE MORE TERRITORY IN SICILIAN DRIVES

TWO MORE IMPORTANT CITIES are nearly within the grasp of the Allied forces as their drives continue at an unslackened pace against comparatively ineffective Axis resistance. As shown on the map above, the British Eighth Army has approached within a few miles of Catania and the U. S. Seventh Army is nearing Agrigento. Now French troops have landed on the island also.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Cancer Delays Are Often Costly

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

THE MEDICAL profession has been preaching for nearly fifty years that the great majority of cancerous growths are curable if steps are taken early. One would think that this was a fairly easy and advantageous health rule to follow.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

It is literally true that month by month the possibility of complete removal of any form of these new growths diminishes in a definite arithmetical progression. It is also true that the great majority of these growths are local at first and only become generalized later on. Why, then, should any one delay treatment at the earliest possible time?

The American Society for the Control of Cancer has collected some figures which show where the responsibility lies. In a series of 158 cases in which the patient presented himself too late for successful treatment, the patient was responsible in 55 per cent, the physician in 17 per cent, and both patient and physician were responsible in the remaining, over 27 per cent.

The average delay in this series was eight and one-half months. That is, delay in starting treatment after the condition could have been adequately diagnosed.

Causes of Delay
Some of the figures are illuminating. In cancer of the face and skin the patient was responsible in 12 per cent of cases, the physician was responsible for delay in no cases, and both physician and patient were responsible for delay in 5 per cent of cases; the average period of delay was over 12 months.

In breast cancer the patient was responsible in 18 per cent of cases, the physician alone was responsible in 3 per cent, and the physician and patient were responsible in 2 per cent; the average delay was 12 months.

Reasons for delay were: The patient did not consider the symptoms serious enough. This occurred in more than one-half of cases. Pure negligence accounted for 11 per cent of delays, expense for 10 per cent, fear of cancer, 1 per cent, fear of doctors, 1½ per cent, treatment by quacks or those who promised non-operative treatment, 1½ per cent.

I am not surprised that delay occurred in a large number of cases of cancer of the stomach and of the large bowel. These began so insidiously that I have known a number of doctors who succumbed to them simply because there were no early symptoms.

Generalized Cases
In another group of cases the condition is apparently more or less generalized from the beginning. I judge that this happens in about 5 per cent of all cases belonging to such groups as those we call sarcoma in children.

In another group of true cancers there is apparently some change in the body chemistry which absolutely dooms the patient to recurrence of spread by the blood and lymph stream, and these are more or less hopeless. But in 90 per cent of cases the condition is local from the beginning and could be cured by early treatment. In this group belong most cases of cancer of the skin and of the breast; as shown in the statistics given above. Doctors are seldom responsible in this class of case.

Most of these growths on the skin can be removed by the X-ray or by radium, entirely painlessly, and with no hospitalization.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

M. B.: Please discuss diverticulosis in your column. What causes it and is there a cure for it? Does it often become malignant?

Answer: A diverticulum is a pouching out of mucous membrane. When several of these occur, it is known as diverticulosis. The place where they are found most frequently is the lower bowel. They can be treated successfully. Occasionally they become malignant.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. Clendening has seven pamphlets which can be obtained by readers. Each pamphlet sells for 10 cents. For any one pamphlet desired, send 10 cents in coin, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 E. 45th st., New York. BRITISH ADVANCE NEARING CATANIA weapons at this stage of the operation.

Within 10 Miles of Sicilian City After Mauling German Division

The reorganized Hermann Goering tank division of the Germans had suffered heavy losses in attempting to oppose the British push toward Catania, headquarters reports said, but the German 15th armored division was known to be in reserve.

However, observers expressed the opinion that the enemy, with only limited and doubtful forces at his disposal, had staked most of his resources in this effort to hold the defenses were disintegrating.

They expressed confidence that with an appreciable number of tanks already in Sicily the Allies would be able to deal satisfactorily with any counter-attack the enemy might mount.

In addition it was said Allied air-borne and sea-borne reinforcements were likely to arrive, and strong naval forces continued to support the British right flank from the sea.

In their latest action, Allied warships again shelled Catania, and a destroyer accounted for another enemy motor torpedo boat.

Taking of Vizzini put Gen. Patton's men astride the central highway connecting the Axis' Eastern and western front. Vizzini is on the slopes of the 1000-foot mountains and about 25 miles west of Augusta.

Meanwhile the overpowering air strength of the Allies was thrown against into a series of paralyzing blows both at the Italian mainland and Sicily itself.

Waterfront Burns Furiously

An assault in the last 24 hours on Naples, comparable to the previous day's strike at Messina, turned a two-mile long, mile wide waterfront area of the biggest Italian port city into a smoking inferno.

An ammunition train exploded and docks, warehouses and locomotives burned furiously, and smoke hung in the air to a height of 20,000 feet after the arsenal was hit.

This was after bombers hit the port Wednesday night, attacking airbases, docks and railway facilities, and after unescorted flying fortresses had continued the assault by daylight.

Patrols also were severely pounded by medium bombers during the day, and Palermo, a focal point of enemy communications, came in for a heavy blow by night.

Meanwhile, approximately 70 Liberators from the Middle East were said in a United States communiqué to have "made a flaming shambles of the main and two satellite" airfields at Foggia on the spur of the Italian boot.

Flying in three waves, the Liberators dropped nearly 400,000 pounds of high explosives, fragmentation and incendiary bombs, covering parts of the main airfield with bombs, and burning at least 30 planes at all three airfields.

The Liberators also started huge fires in wooded areas.

Again Attack Messina

Four-engined RAF Halifaxes from the Middle East continued the assault on Messina Wednesday night, finding fires still raging that had been set in the previous 24 hours.

In a steady attrition of enemy shipping, Allied planes torpedoed a large merchant ship off the north coast of Sardinia, and severely damaged at least three others.

Well in advance of the rolling Allied troops British and American air-borne and parachute forces swooped from the skies to knock out centers of enemy resistance and pave the way for the oncoming tank and infantry units.

The German radio reported 10,000 Allied parachute troops had dropped behind Axis lines on the Catania plain and that all had "been disposed of."

ANNUAL DISCIPLES DAY IS ARRANGED

Canton Man To Speak At Fairgrounds Services
Next Sunday

LISBON, July 16.—Final arrangements are now being made for the annual Columbiana county "Disciples Day" which will be held at the fairgrounds here Sunday, under the sponsorship of the Christian Men's Brotherhood of the county.

The program will include a county-wide communion service at 3 p. m. and a vesper service at 6:30, following a basket supper on the grounds at 5:30.

Rev. P. H. Welshimer of Canton will preach at both the afternoon and evening services, Rev. Theodore Church, pastor of the local Christian church and chairman of the program committee, announced today.

Other members of the committee include: Rev. D. Park Chapman of East Liverpool, Rev. C. F. Evans of Salem, Rev. N. B. Martin of East Palestine, Rev. Archie Mackey of Wellsville, and Rev. H. E. Martin of Salineville.

Ray D. Thomson, Lisbon, is in charge of the elders; Harry Froitz, Wellsville, chairman of the deacons, while the music will be under the direction of T. C. McClelland of Wellsville, with Miss Helen Gillis, Lisbon, as accompanist.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and United Presbyterian churches of Lisbon are cooperating in the evening vesper service.

AKRON'S TRANSIT STRIKE STILL ON

Regional War Labor Board
Asks Street Car, Bus
Drivers Return to Jobs

(By Associated Press)
AKRON, July 16.—Bus and street car service remains at a standstill here today, as a strike of more than 400 CIO operators continues despite a three-sided effort to end the stoppage.

The executive committee of the CIO Transport Workers union called a meeting of members for 2 p. m. today and International President Michael J. Quill indicated he would appeal personally to the men to return to their jobs.

The Regional War Labor board in Cleveland sent a telegram to union leaders calling for an end to the strike, and at the same time, Akron's Mayor George J. Harter conferred with union heads on methods of starting a back-to-work movement.

While the unexpected walkout at 4 a. m. yesterday paralyzed all mass transportation facilities in Akron, Barberton and Cuyahoga Falls, major war industries reported only slight increases in absenteeism and said production was not curtailed.

The walkout followed WLB panel recommendations of time and a half pay for all work over 42½ hours weekly, straight time pay for all over three hours waiting time between shifts, and paid vacations of one week after one year and two weeks after the second year.

Rubber Strike Ends

Denied by the panel were requests for time and a half for sixth day work, checkoff of union dues, and payment of time and a half for six specific holidays a year, and several minor issues.

Another Akron strike was ended last night, when 120 striking CIO United Rubber Workers resumed work in the General Tire and Rubber Co. band room.

The walkout made more than 700 other employees idle because of stock shortages, and ended after Emmett B. Harper, local union president, disclaimed responsibility "for whatever action might be taken against any of our members involved" in the strike.

The company earlier notified the band room workers they would be considered as having quit their jobs and would be dropped from the payroll if they did not report today.

In an effort to end a stoppage by 350 CIO United Steelworkers in the Timken Roller Bearing Co.'s Canton steel mill, Col. J. H. Malone, labor chief of the Army's Fifth Service command, last night asked the war manpower commission to extend the deadline for the company's switching to the 48-hour week.

The walkout Wednesday followed readjustment of a mill recorder's working schedule and his replacement by a woman in the mill division, union leaders said. Federal Conciliator A. T. Pinkney said the unionists objected to the schedule changes on the grounds workers would be downgraded in some instances and others would be out of jobs.

RAF BOMBS FALL ON FRENCH PLANT

Montbéliard Motor Works
Hit As Other Planes
Fly Over Italy

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, July 16.—Halifax bombers of the RAF attacked the Peugeot Motor Vehicle works at Montbéliard in northern France last night, the air ministry announced today, and Lancaster swung across the Alps to pummel targets in northern Italy.

The Peugeot Motor works produce two-ton trucks and the output was second only to that of the Renault plant before the latter was flattened by air attack.

Montbéliard is located about 10 miles south of Belfort in eastern France, near the Swiss border, and the German radio said in a broadcast recorded by The Associated Press that the raiders had violated Swiss territory.

In Italy the Lancasters blasted an electric transformer and switching stations, the announcement said, but the site of the attack was not given.

Auxiliary raids by RAF Intruders on airfields and railways in Germany, France and the low countries were reported.

Seven bombers were listed as missing. One enemy plane was shot down.

Keeping up the air offensive, two waves of Allied planes swung across Dover strait this morning in the direction of Boulogne and Calais.

At least a dozen airfields were blasted with bombs and strafed with machine gun fire and 20 locomotives were shot up last night, an air ministry announcement said.

NEW FOOD PRICE CEILINGS LISTED

OPA Extends System to Columbiana and 14 Other
Counties in Ohio

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, July 16.—The District Office of Price Administration today extended community wide dollar-and-cent ceiling prices to 15 northeastern Ohio counties.

The flat prices, covering about 150 brands of food items, is effective today in Ashland, Ashtabula, Carroll, Columbiana, Erie, Geauga, Huron, Lake, Lorain, Medina, Portage, Richland, Trumbull, Tuscarawas and Wayne counties. Flat-pricing already is established in Cuyahoga, Summit, Mahoning and Stark counties.

The OPA said standardization under the new plan would level off prices but would not change the general legal price level "because community prices reflect ceilings previously prevailing under market regulations."

Community prices will be maximums only and retailers may sell for less, the OPA said. About 75 per cent of all food items are affected.

Stores Are Classified

Food stores are classified in four groups depending on annual sales volume:

Group 1—Independent retail outlets with volume less than $50,000.

Group 2—Independent retail outlets with volume $50,000 to $250,000.

Group 3—Retail outlets other than retail stores with volume less than $250,000.

Group 4—Any retail outlet with an annual gross sales volume of $250,000 or more.

Stores are required to post a sign indicating its classification and the selling price of each item of food covered by the regulation, the OPA said.

Local and National brands of the following products are now priced under the community dollar-and-cent program: dry groceries—bread, hot and cold cereals, butter and lard, coffee, package flour, honey, macaroni and spaghetti, noodles, shortening, cooking and salad oils, sugar, and syrup; canned fruits and vegetables—wax and green beans, corn, peas, tomatoes, tomato juice, baby food, peaches, pears, Hawaiian pineapple, and prunes; evaporated and fluid milk; processed and frozen salt-water fish; and poultry.

War-Time Marriage Tempo Tapers Off

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, July 16.—Ohio's wartime marriage tempo is tapering off, state health department records disclosed today.

"Thousands of marriageable boys are in the services," said Dr. R. H. Markwith, health director. "A decline was inevitable in the stepped-up rate dating from Pearl Harbor."

Dr. Markwith expects the stark, therefore, to trim production proportionately. The state birth rate hit an all-time high of about 140,000 babies in 1942. The peak month for babies last year was October, 10 months after the nation entered the war.

Laboratory reports on pre-marital blood tests, required by law of all who wed in Ohio since August, 1941, show a substantial drop for each month this year against the corresponding month in 1942.

Here are the figures: January—10,457 this year compared with 15,390 in 1942; February—9,451 and 10,888; March—9,435 and 12,965; April—10,474 and 13,133; May—11,222 and 15,106; June—13,579 and 17,040.

The blood tests statistics also show that in December of 1941, as he nation went to war, a month's record of 17,429 persons had pre-marital blood tests in Ohio.

YANKS TRICK JAPS TO CAPTURE MUBO

Beat Enemy at Own Jungle Tactics; 45 Japanese Planes Downed

July 10 at Buigap creek, cutting communications and isolating the Japanese on observation and Green Hills.

Observation Hill was overrun after 106 tons of bombs fell among its demoralized defenders in less than 45 minutes from Allied planes. From front and rear, other enemy defenses at Mubo were stormed.

Hold Air Superiority
The sky fight over the Central Solomons, where the Japanese have expended more than 200 planes since the current offensive started, found the Americans shooting down more planes than they had in the air tackling the 27 enemy bombers and their escort of between 50 and 60 Zeros. Against the 45 downed, we lost three planes, and our Solomons losses to date are under 50.

In inter-island waters above Munda, one Japanese merchant ship was sunk, a second left aflame, two barges sunk and a third set on fire by roving Mitchell medium bombers.

On an enemy's garrison of Bairo supply port for Munda on the Kula gulf, a heavy force of dive-bombers poured 1,000 and 2,000 pound bombs yesterday.

The communique today also disclosed that in the second Navy battle in the Kula gulf July 13, the United States Destroyer Gwin was damaged so severely she sank later while being towed to port.

BIG OIL PIPELINE TO BE DEDICATED

New $95,000,000 Line Extends From Illinois To Pennsylvania

(By Associated Press)

CINCINNATI, July 16.—Big Inch is all but finished.

Test runs of crude oil are being pumped through the eastern section of the $95,000,000 transcontinental pipeline from Norris City, Ill., and next Monday at Phoenixville, Pa., government dignitaries including Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes, will witness welding of the last section of the 1,341 miles of 24-inch pipe.

Monday is 15 days shore of a year from the time the first section was laid.

Officials of the Petroleum Administration For War Emergency Pipelines, Inc., said pumping started at Norris City Wednesday and oil is moving eastward 33 1-3 miles a day. Engineers are checking the run for leaks or other "bugs."

Big Inch, conceived to help meet the wartime oil crisis, now stretches from Longview, in the east Texas oil fields, to New York and Philadelphia refineries. At Phoenixville Junction the line splits, one branch going to Linden, N. J., the other to Philadelphia.

The 15,000 men who ditched plains and mountain, woods and cornfields, and laid and welded the pipe aren't quitting. They're staying on the job to finish the 20-inch gasoline line from Beaumont, Tex., paralleling Big Inch most of the way. Officials of WEP headquarters here predict the smaller line will be ready in December.

PRESIDENT ENDS PUBLIC FEUDING

Cracks Down On Wallace, Jones, Establishes Economic Warfare Board

President's determination to have harmony and cooperation.... the new director will find the affairs of all RFC agencies engaged in foreign purchases in excellent condition.... functioning with a maximum of efficiency and at a minimum of expense.

Jones pledged cooperation to Crowley whom he described as the best qualified man for the job. Crowley, himself had nothing to say, except to accept the assignment.

Other Agencies Shifted
The reorganization shifts BEW's 4,000 employees to the new setup, along with RFC's U.S. Commercial corporation, the Rubber Development corporation, the Petroleum Reserve corporation Export-Import Disagreements between Wallace and Jones over policy go back many months though undercover until the vice president issued a 28-page blast on June 29 in which he accused the whitethatched Texas banker of "obstructing" BEW. The next day, both were called to the White House where James F. Byrnes, presidential right hand man, sought to make peace.

In a matter of hours, however, Wallace repeated in another statement that the RFC delayed the far effort though he tempered it by saying he never intended to question Jones' patriotism. Six-foot-two Jesse met the challenge, called Wallace's words "dastardly."

Jones waited until July 5 then threw 7,500 stinging words of rebuke at Wallace whom he accused of malice, innuendo, "half-truths and no truths at all."

influence on a lot of folk. Still, there can be no question that a large percentage of the people are ready for revolt and only need a strong leader to set them marching.

This is the crucial moment when the King might step in and save his country from further suffering. It's doubtful if Hitler could do much to restrain a concerted movement, for he is up to his neck in troubles north of the Alps. Certainly the Allied leadership has gauged the situation shrewdly in issuing the ultimatum.

Whatever else that document does, it will forever live in history as a castigation of the treacherous Mussolini. His sins are definitely on record.

LITTY FUNERAL

Funeral service will be conducted at 2 p. m. Monday at the Stark Memorial for Robert V. Litt, former Salem painter who was killed in a traffic accident Wednesday in Miami, Fla. Rev. D. D. Palmer of Warren, a brother-in-law, and Rev. Robert Mosher will conduct the service.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. Sunday. Burial will be in Hope cemetery.

Italian Gives Up Easily. Alliance Officer Declares

WITH AMERICAN INVASION TROOPS ON SICILY, July 12 — (Delayed)—As German and Italian prisoners streamed to the rear of invading Allied forces on Sicily, Lt. Col. Kenneth Cunin of Alliance, O., summed up the Italian will to fight thus:

"As long as the Italian is well equipped, as long as he can see you and knows where you are, he will fight like hell. But once you surprise him and get the jump on him or get behind him, he folds up like that."

Colonel Cunin snapped his fingers to illustrate.

His observations to an Associated Press war correspondent, Don Whitehead, followed 10 savage hours of fighting on the American front July 11 to stem enemy attacks that penetrated to within 1,000 yards of a vital beachhead.

Soldier In North Africa Gets County Highway Map

LISBON, July 16.—County Engineer Charles O. Snyder wonders of what possible use could a Columbiana county highway map be in North Africa, following receipt of a request from a soldier on that continent.

The request came in a censored V-letter received this week by Snyder, and was written by Pfc. Edwin D. Richards, who explained: "I want to do a little planning while I'm away over here."

Needless to say that Engineer Snyder obliged and the county road map, with all its markings, is now on its way to Africa.

Iraq Discoveries Aid Study of Man

BAGHDAD — Eight thousand years before Hitler shook the world with his battle cry, the first human beings in Iraq pitched their tents beside camp fires at Tel Hassouna, southwest of Mosul, government excavating in the area have discovered.

The first men to come into this ancient land were herdsmen and probably came from Anatolia and the Caucasus. This new discovery goes back several centuries before the earliest relics found in Egypt and forms a new link with the stone age settlement found at Mer-sin, Turkey.

This alongside contributions to the Allied war effort, Iraq today places on record a signal contribution to the history of man. The project was worked on by University of Pennsylvania archaeologists until 1938.

Fred Safar of the department of antiquities came on the discovery when he found debris that established a human encampment—a profusion of animal bones—the majority of which identified as goats. The first settlers were idol worshippers and left behind their potshards of fertility, a miniature image of a clay woman. Graceful and attractively decorated earthenware vessels discovered created a new picture of the earliest phase of pottery art in Iraq. Several undamaged pieces were uncovered—the only ones for that period found complete anywhere in the world.

Dogs Need Rationing Here

MARTINSBURG, W. Va.—Meat rationing has proved it is really a "dog's life" living in wartime and the half-starved strays of this eastern panhandle section has turned to foraging in packs.

D. C. McDonald, caretaker of an estate near Martinsburg, reported that in six weeks dogs seriously injured six of 21 head of hogs of the farm. McDonald said he has been forced to kill seven dogs to protect stock from the marauders.

France's Mystery Leader - - - The Man Who Stayed Behind

(Editor's Note: The following article was written by Edward Kennedy, chief of The Associated Press bureau in Algiers who is now visiting in this country).

By EDWARD KENNEDY
NEW YORK—As General Charles DeGaulle and Henri Giraud grapple for the leadership of the French, reports trickle into Algiers of another leader, who has recently emerged as the guiding spirit of resistance inside France.

He has been called "The Man Who Stayed Behind." He has presented no formal claims for recognition, has made no public statements, has given no inkling of the kind of government he favors for France after the war.

But, according to stories brought by many who have escaped from France in past weeks, he has a strong organization and it has a name. It is "Ravanche"—"Revenge."

Able Lieutenants
These refugees say he has able lieutenants, many thousands of followers and, like DeGaulle and Giraud, has an army of his own.

His lieutenants are mostly men wanted by the Gestapo and by Vichy, who hide in cellars and garrets. His army is made up of soldiers who have taken to the hills where, without much equipment, they have formed battalions, drill and wait for the hour to strike.

Some of the stories being brought out of France about this organization may be fanciful. But this much seems certain:

Crushed, humiliated and despondent, the French in France did little to organize to fight again in the first year of their enslavement. Then underground movements throughout France assumed a certain vigor which has increased with each new German cruelty.

Each new Vichy betrayal, with each new word of hope from abroad.

Underground Links
These movements became linked together, headed groups of leaders. Out of these one man has emerged who seems to have won the confidence of most of the others and has become the guiding hand.

His name, it is said, is not yet known to many—the character of the French underground movement is like that. But he is described by some arrivals from France as a young man, never before active in French politics, who at present has only one aim—to liberate France.

His movement, it is said, is imbued with a hatred of the Germans and Vichy, unusual even in this hatred-torn world of today, so deep runs its fervor.

It is conceivable that the leader in France heard radio appeals to join the Fighting French abroad as he hid in a hayloft, but turned a deaf ear to them. There are many in France, according to refugees, who decided the best way to redeem France was to stay there.

The Committee of National Liberation set up in Algiers has itself recognized the work of those who stayed behind by leaving two places vacant for men who may join it in the future.

A Man Escapes
How the French underground works is indicated by a story told to me in Algiers a short time ago by a man who had just arrived from France.

"I come from the north of France," he said. "For many months I was undecided. My family did not have enough to eat and things got worse and worse. I finally decided to come."

"Once I started out, I was surprised how easy it was. I never entered any city or large town. But there was always a peasant to put me up for the night and give me food. And when I set out again he could always give me the name of another peasant for the next stop. But that was hardly necessary—almost any peasant will do it. It is the peasants who have shown themselves the most loyal Frenchmen."

And there was always someone to direct me, to tell me whom to see when I arrived at X or Y or Z. And when I arrived at a spot on the coast, where others had converged, there was a little boat waiting."

The guerrillas in the mountains are keeping to themselves at present, though a few months ago, one group in Savoy clashed with German troops who set out to wipe them out. They are still in the hills there and others are in the hills throughout France.

The Germans, refugees say, have succeeded in one thing—they have cleared coastal regions of any groups which might ally themselves. But beyond that they have been unable to do much to the soldiers in the hills.

Plowing garden ground in the fall before the ground freezes gives the weather a chance to break up the soil. Alternate freezing and thawing followed by proper preparation in the spring will make it loose and pliable for planting.

However, sandy soil will wash badly if plowed during heavy rains. It should be covered with manure and mulch, or sown to some winter cover crop.

There are spots in the Florida Everglades where one can jiggle up and down and the surface of the muck will quiver in waves for dozens of feet around.

FROM JAP MAGAZINE: U. S. Prisoners in Chinese Camp

TAKEN FROM A JAP PROPAGANDA MAGAZINE, this picture purportedly shows American prisoners at a camp at Woosung, China. Although the Japs tried to whitewash their war prison administration after 700 prisoners had died of neglect and mistreatment, this picture shows several things, as pointed out by competent observers. For instance, the prisoners are not allowed to shave or cut their hair. They are wearing Jap uniforms instead of their own clothing. The prisoners are making phonograph records for relaying messages to the United States. (International)

MIAMI, Fla. — Dr. Jimmy Armstrong told fellow members of the Rod and Reel club here how he and Dr. Frank Olds caught 50,000 trout at one time.

He related that he and Dr. Olds created an artificial lake by damming a creek at their summer place at Highlands, N. C. A few months later a dam broke a short distance upstream and emptied a similar artificial lake containing 50,000 trout, dumping them into the Armstrong-Olds lake. The trout are still there except for some Drs. Olds and Armstrong have removed with rod and reel.

Slovaks Capture Second Round Class B Championship

Beat Paxsons In Exciting 7 to 6 Encounter At Park; Chinas, Bliss Win In Class A

The Slovaks, although out-hit, managed to beat Paxsons for the Class B second round softball championship in a thrilling 7-6 encounter Thursday evening at Centennial park.

Seven errors didn't help matters any for the losers, who managed to score one run in the last inning in an attempt to overcome the 7 to 5 lead held by the Slovaks at that time. The winners accounted for six hits for their seven runs. Paxsons clouted five runs in the second inning and it was not until the sixth that the Slovaks were able to even the score.

The junior loop's third round opens Monday, with Sheens facing the Slovaks and the East End A. C.'s opposing the Presbyterians. Class A softball games last night saw the Potters spank Strains 12 to 3, and Bliss beat Demings 6-2. The China nine made its hit.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK, July 16.—A recent visitor to these precincts was Mrs. Violet Jean McClatchey, an attractive and very earnest young woman from Bartlesville, Okla., by way of South Orange, N. J., who stopped to put in a few good words for the common copper cent. . . . The reason that Mrs. McClatchey thinks so highly of cents is that when 200,000 women bowlers start contributing them, they amount up to a good many pretty pennies, and as chairman of the War Service committee of the Women's International Bowling Congress, Mrs. M. wants to keep the pennies, nickels and dimes pouring in. . . . She also is interested in giving her favorite sport full credit for its war contributions.

Last year the W. I. B. C. bought a bomber plane for the air forces, and adopted its crew, thereby giving Capt. William Cham and Sgt. William Merched something of an advantage over sailors who have only one girl in every port. . . . "Miss W. I. B. C." already has been in action and recently returned to Dayton, O., for a check-up. . . . The girls found they had some money left over, so they bought an ambulance which will be presented to the Army soon, probably at Columbus, O. . . . They're not setting any quotas for their contributions, but they are collecting a cent for every time it is left standing on the first ball.

Impressive as these figures look, what really stirs Mrs. McClatchey's enthusiasm is the fact that a large part of the money comes from pennies dropped in the "kitty" for misses, splits, etc., during bowling matches. . . . One of her favorite novelties is putting a yellow pin in each pit—"they call it the Jap pin. Well named, don't you think?"—and collecting a cent for every time it is left standing on the first ball.

In addition to contributing their small change, the women bowlers are doing such things as knitting for the Red Cross—you'll see them working with their needles while waiting their turn at the pins, writing letters to service men and women, including nearly 500 members of the W. I. B. C. in the service.

Female Teams Seek Baseball Limelight

DETROIT—Women have moved to the front in business, politics and the armed forces and now they're seeking a prominent place in the Detroit Baseball School run by Councilman William Roedel. And the former Tiger shortstop hasn't made up his mind about the latest invasion of women.

Of the 434 teams enrolled in his school, two feminine baseball teams obtained enrollment cards, filled them out and demanded a place on the schedule.

It would be tough on the male athletes if the women won the tournament.

ST. LOUIS, July 16.—Cleveland's Indians meet the St. Louis Browns tonight and for the first time in recent memory the Tribe won't be opposed by old nemesis Johnny Niggeling in a floodlight contest.

Al Smith, slated to hit against the Browns' Bob Munier tonight, faced Niggeling in a night game June 10 and lost 2 to 1. Regarded as one of the Cleveland team's hurling jinxes, he defeated the Indians five times last year.

The Browns edged the Redskins 2 to 1 in the series opener yesterday, handing Jim Bagby his fourth straight loss. Vernon Stephens' homer in the fourth inning, following Bagby's only base on balls of the game, netted the Browns their two runs.

Ken Keltner hit a four-bagger in the sixth inning for the Tribe's only tally. Steve Sundra allowed four hits while the Browns collected six.

Game Group's Field Day Called Off This Summer
LISBON, July 16.—The Columbus County Fish and Game Protective association will not conduct its annual field day because of war conditions and inability to fill the contestants' lists. In former years this event has attracted up to 3,000 people.

The events consisted of trapshooting, fly casting and other sports, all at Guilford lake.

The association has announced that the fall coon dog trials would be held, probably in September, but no date has been selected. Several hundred dogs were entered in the spring coon dog trials.

Still Using Arm
DETROIT—Sheldon LeJeune, who made baseball's longest throw (426 feet 9 1/2 inches) while playing in the Central League, is a mutual ticket seller at the fair grounds track here. He was a Dodger and a Phil a quarter of a century ago.

Frisch Found Out
NEW YORK—When Frankie Frisch was managing the Cardinals in 1938 he didn't know much about his new rookie, Enos Slaughter. All Slaughter did in 1937 was lead the American association in hitting with .382 as a Columbus outfielder.

Should Be Hot Team
BLACSBURG, Va.—With only a single letterman slated to be on hand, Virginia Polytechnic institute will hold summer football drills this year in place of the usual spring practice which was cancelled.

NEW YORK—Partially disabled war veterans may be able to resume useful civilian lives by working for golf clubs, suggested the United States Golf Association Green section to its member clubs.

Spokesmen pointed out that many clubs have labor problems, especially in shortage of greens-keeping staffs. They possibly could help the veterans and themselves by telling their wants to the Veterans' Employment representatives in their states.

PHILADELPHIA—The Philadelphia Phillies set a new all-time record in the realm of rebuilding a ball club this year. The National league Green Book, published in March, introduced eight new players. Not one of them now is with the team.

Fools Doctors and Hitters —

Chisox $1-A-Year Ace Is Proud Slugger

AP Features
CHICAGO—For a fellow who was told last July that he might never pitch again, young Orval Grove is having himself quite a time in the majors.

The 23-year-old product of the Chicago White Sox farm system has won seven straight games without suffering a defeat in what may be his first full season of big league pitching. And he seems to get better as he goes along. On his last outing he came within one out of a no-hitter. Joe Gordon spoiled his masterpiece with a double after two men had been retired in the ninth, but Grove went on to win, 1-0.

Thwarted By Knee Injury
The big right hander made his major league debut last year, but it was cut short in mid season after he had won four games and lost six. A recurrence of an old knee injury involving torn cartilage caused the interruption. An operation followed and he was told by doctors it was unlikely he ever would be able to pitch again.

But all six feet and 195 pounds of the young and handsome Grove can be very stubborn, as 1943 American League batsmen are fast discovering.

"I like all sports and I love baseball," he said, "so I decided to risk another operation. I had it in December. There were no immediate indications that the results would be favorable. I took long walks to strengthen the knee, finished out the year working in a war plant and reported for Spring training with the Sox."

Grove's Spring conditioning was gradual and without incident, he related, but Manager Jimmy Dykes refrained from assigning him much work even after the season was well under way. In fact the Sox were so dubious about his possibilities that he was signed to one of those $1 a year contracts.

Was On Relief
In the first month and a half of the campaign he appeared in four games, all as a relief hurler, and only once did he work as long as two innings. Two more relief jobs followed, one of which he converted to victory, and on June 6 Dykes let him start his first game.

The fast baller pitched eight impressive innings against Boston and led 3-1 going into the ninth before weakening.

Thereafter Grove started seven games, finishing all but one. Two of the wins were shut outs and in two other games the opposition got but one run. In his last three games he has allowed but nine hits and only two runs.

"I'm doing nothing greatly different from last year," Grove says. "It's just that I can come down on my left leg now knowing that my weight and movement are not likely to bring pain."

"My biggest trouble last year was wildness, probably because of my knee, but that has cleared up, too."

Grove doesn't give all the credit for his 1943 success to the operation.

Muddy The Spotter
"That Muddy Ruel (White Sox coach and pitching diagnostician extraordinary) is a wonder,"

Grove said. "He's straightened me out plenty."

"Something very simple can throw a pitcher off, just like a golfer at his game. But just tell Ruel . . . He'll watch you and in a couple of minutes, he'll spot it."

Ruel calls Grove a pitcher "with good technical knowledge" and "unlimited possibilities."

Can Mix 'Em Up
"He doesn't have the fast ball of Bob Feller nor the curve of Tommy Bridges," Ruel avers, "but he does have a well rounded selection of pitches and he doesn't have to stick to one delivery."

Dykes opined: "He's got the makings of a great pitcher. In fact, I'll go so far as to say he'll be a great pitcher."

Sinking The Enemy
Grove, single but rejected for military service recently because of his knee, says he is having considerable success this year with his "sinker" ball. As evidence of the way batters are driving this pitch into the dirt, he points to five double plays the Sox turned in behind him in a game against St. Louis. In his very next start, the Sox executed three more double plays.

Paradoxically, it was a "sinker" that Gordon slapped down the third base line the night of July 8 to keep Grove from baseball's Hall of Fame.

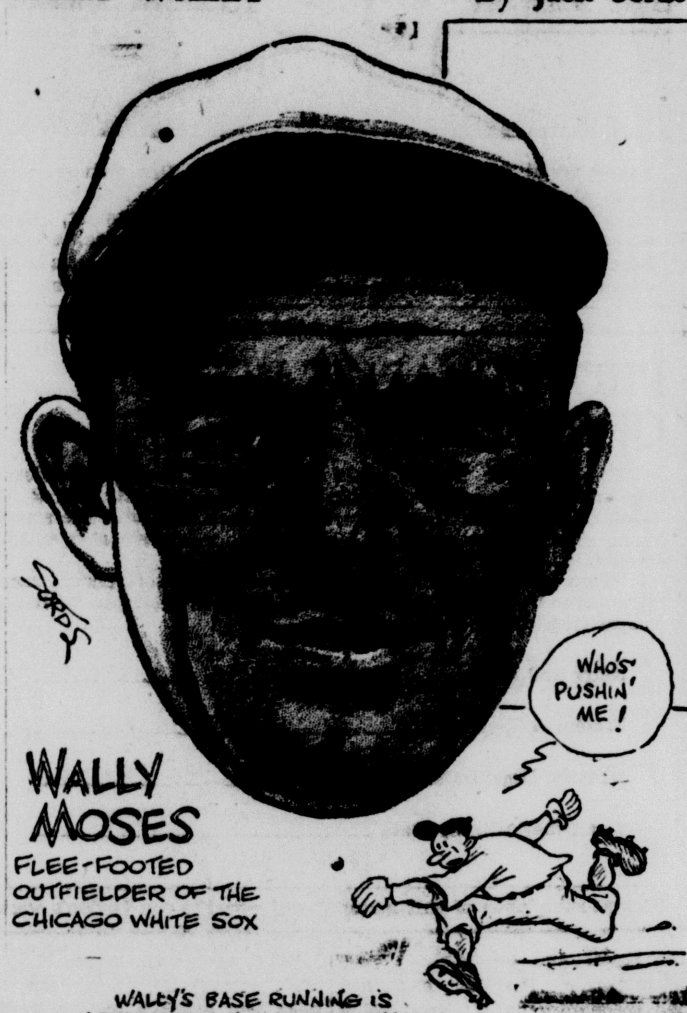

"It was a sinker, in on him," Grove said. "If I got it away from him, he wouldn't have been different. But it was a good pitch. I wanted it low and it was. After all, you don't get those good hitters out all night."

Grove says his baseball has been full of exciting moments, but his near no-hitter is tops. Incidentally, he is quite proud of the fact, too, that in 22 times at bat he has batted in seven runs and scored six, all on five hits; also of a punt against New York that squeezed in not one, but two runs.

"This is Grove's sixth year in pro ball. The Sox picked him up after he pitched a no-hitter for Proviso High school of Maywood, Ill., a Chicago suburb. He started with Longview of the East Texas league in 1938, played two seasons with Oklahoma City and most of 1941 with Shreveport where he won 17 games and lost seven. His first part of 1941 was spent with the pale horse and last year he came up to stay."

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Bums rush is on in Brooklyn for fair and this time the heavens are about to go to Joseph Michael (Muscles) Medwick, the once celebrated outfielder whose usefulness to the Dodgers, like that of Louis Norman (Bobo) Newsom, apparently has come to an end.

When the ball club left New York last night for a three-weeks trip away from the stormy scene of insurrection at Ebbets field, Medwick was left at home.

Although the maneuver was shrouded in mystery by club officials, no mirrors were needed to see behind the veil of Branch Rickey's house-cleaning.

Having moved to wipe out the rebellion against Manager Leo Durocher by trading Newsom to the St. Louis Browns for two antiquated pitchers, Fritz Ostermueller and Archie McKain, Rickey has 28 players on his roster, one over the limit, and was compelled to get rid of another man.

Performance Not So Good
His choice of Medwick was connected only indirectly with the rebellion. Rickey has been trying to dispose of him ever since becoming president of the Dodgers last November. He didn't like the temperament of the famous slugger, who never had batted less than .300 in 12 seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn and who had been the National league's batting champion and most valuable player in 1937.

Although he has come down a long way from his original asking price, Rickey's chances of making a deal for Medwick have faded with the player's performance this year. At present his batting average is .272 and he hasn't made a hit longer than a double.

The Bums hit the headlines again at the same time they hit the road and their antics continued to provide a smoke-screen over the activities of other clubs, most of whom resumed play yesterday after the All-Star game layoff.

The Dodgers, while idle, even gained half a game on the Cardinals, who were whipped 4-3 at Pittsburgh last night as Maurice Van Robays, just returned from a minor league whirl at Toronto, collected a double and two singles to lead a 14-hit attack on Max Lanier.

Tribe Loses 2-1
The Chicago Cubs bunched five runs in the third and three in the eighth to crush the Cincinnati Reds 8-0 behind the four-hit hurling of Hiram Bithorn.

The Phillies pounded a 9-1 victory out of the New York Giants as Richard (Kewpie) Barrett pitched steady seven-hit ball.

In the American league Orval Grove attained his eighth triumph without defeat by pitching five-hit ball as the Chicago White Sox downed the Detroit Tigers 7-4. Washington whipped the Boston Red Sox 4-3 with Bob Johnson driving in three runs, two of them on a homer.

The St. Louis Browns stopped the Cleveland Indians 2-1 in the only game played in daylight.

HERE'S A SOLDIER who makes $203.50 a month. He is Pvt. Cyril G. Wolfe, who is believed to be the highest paid private in the U. S. Army. The 42-year-old soldier is father of 10 children. His wife and mother are also listed as dependents. (International)

Solved Sea Water Device

PASADENA, Calif. — The scientists who developed the system whereby sea water can be made drinkable for persons lost at sea consisted of a group of men at the California Institute of Technology working under the direction of Dr. Alex Goetz. Two small blocks of chemicals and four plastic bags with which any airplane, lifeboat or raft can be equipped are all that is necessary to do the trick.

Rebuilding the British Navy after the Napoleonic wars started the forest industry in Quebec Province, which is a foremost industry there to this day.
